Congressman Charles W. Whalen, Jr. (R-Ohio) today announced that his second annual poll of constituents will be in the mail in the next few days.

The questionnaire contains eight questions on issues ranging from the Vietnam War to legislation on proposed holiday changes.

Whalen said he hoped for the maximum possible participation by Third District residents in responding to the poll.

"The greater the number of cards returned, the greater the accuracy of the over-all results will be," Whalen said.

"Last year, over 25,000 of the questionnaires were returned. I am hopeful that we will see an increase this time."

The card is pre-addressed to Whalen's Washington office. Recipients need only check off their answers, affix a 6-cent stamp and drop the card in the mail.

Returns will be tabulated as they arrive, Whalen said.

A comprehensive evaluation will be released as soon as possible. The details will be contained in Whalen's next newsletter which will be sent out as early as practicable.

The card asks three questions on Vietnam. Included are course of action (M O R E) choices, the issue of Viet Cong recognition as a truce condition and whether constituents feel they have "a clear understanding of why the U. S. is fighting in Vietnam.

Other questions ask for preferences in reducing government spending, feeling on firearm sales regulation, the proposed surtax and creation of an all-volunteer Army.

A copy of the poll card is enclosed for your information and use.

Dear Friend:

A year ago, I asked your opinion on the current issues of the day.

I would like to do so again. Thus, I ask that you complete the questions on the reverse side of this card and mail it to me at your earliest convenience.

The opinions of the citizens of the Third Congressional District are invaluable to me.

You can help me represent you better in Washington if you will take the time to indicate your views.

Sincerely,

Chuck Whalen
Charles W. Whalen, Jr.
Member of Congress
Third Ohio District
