

THE PARADE OF THE GENERALS

or

One Hundred Years in the Society of Mary.

L.P.T.

PARADE OF THE S.N. GENERALS

Music from a Danish Ballad
Words by L.P.T.

With Gusto

(Introd. and interlude between verses)

LIS-TEN MY etc.

BRO-THERS OH LIS-TEN UN- TO ME AND I WILL TELL THE

STO-RY OF OUR SO- CI- N- TY. FIRST OF ALL CAME

CHA-MI- NADE A MIGHTY MAN WAS HE HE MADE A FOOL OF

ROBESPIERRE AND THEN HE FOUND- ED WE... FA- LA LA LA FAL LA IA

LA LA FAL LA IA LA FAL LA LA LA (Interlude and other verses)

CODA (Slowly)
A HUNDRED YEARS IS A LONG LONG TIME.... A HUNDRED YEARS IS A LONG LONG TIME A----- MEN..

Jan. 22, 1949.

PARADE OF THE S.M. GENERALS.

I. Listen, my brothers, oh listen unto me
And I will tell the story of our Society:

First came Bon Pere CHAMINADE, a mighty man was he;
He made a fool of Robespierre and then he founded we..

Fal-la-la-la Fal-la-la-la-la...

II. Next came Father CAILLET, he was a man of rigor,
He blew the horn and beat the drum, and prayed with lots of vigor.

Then came holy Pere CHEVAUX with countenance most ascetic,
They loaded him with burdens and with troubles quite pathetic.

Fal-la-la-la Fal-la-la-la-la.

III. Next in line was SIMLER, he packed a mighty wallop,
He shook the reins and plied the spurs and we broke into a gallop.

Then came kindly Joseph HISS, who sailed across the water,
His English wasn't perfect, but we loved him as we ourter.

Fal-la-la-la Fal-la-la-la-la.

IV. The next head man was SORRET; oh, brief was his story,
His virtues were abundant, so the Lord took him to glory.

Then came Father KIEFFER an ace in education,
He showed us how to get some joy from work and meditation.

Fal-la-la-la Fal-la-la-la-la

V. The MORAL to this S.M. tale is plain for all to see
Our Generals all were holy men, if they could, why can't we?

Fal-la-la-la Fal-la-la-la-la.

CODA.

A Hundred Years is a long, long time.
Verily, a Hundred Years is a long, long time..... AMEN

L.P.T.