1. The minutes of the Sept. 14, 2001 meeting of the APC were approved.
2. Approval of the Proposal to Academic Senate

James Dunne provided the committee with a draft of the legislation regarding the impacts of the new +/- grading system on existing University policy. This proposal is Senate document No. 1-00-16 and is entitled, 'Undergraduate Academic Policies Affected by the New +/- Grading System.'

The members of the APC approved the final draft of the proposal pending an investigation, prompted by an inquiry from Gordon Sargent, regarding the possible conflict of current special agreements made for accepting transfer credit for students coming to UD from Sinclair Community College with both the current policy of not accepting transfer credit for students with a grade below C and the provision in the proposal changing this policy to not accepting transfer credit for courses with a grade below C-. It was agreed that Joe Saliba would look into possible conflicts and bring them to the attention of the APC before the October meeting of the full Senate. The final draft of the legislation was provisionally approved. It was agreed that unless the possible conflict with special agreements with Sinclair necessitated a change in wording, the wording in the final draft would be used in the proposal to be brought before the full senate at the Oct. 12 meeting.

The meeting adjourned at 8:20.
