specialization in Mariology. In addition, graduate level programs lead to certification in Marian studies after presentation of a thesis. In conjunction with the University of Dayton and the Marianum, the Institute's courses are to aid priests, religious and lay people to deepen their knowledge of Christian doctrine and spirituality as well as to understand the importance of the mystery of Mary as outlined in LUMEN GENTIUM and MARIALIS CULTUS. Auditors are admitted to the program. Some scholarships are available to students at the Institute as are fellowships for scholars engaged in independent research.
