University of Dayton. Campus Ministry
For You

It takes intentional actions for a neighborhood to know each other... people give life and meaning to a town/city. As humans it is our duty to help each other when in need.

UD Student reflecting on New Orleans BreakOut

We, myself included, need to be aware of how our actions effect the rest of the world. We are incredibly privileged to be attending this university and that privilege, in my mind, comes with great social environmental responsibility. We can start small... recycle, learn composting, turn off lights, meet your neighbors, cook for your friends, live more simply!

UD Student reflecting on involvement in social justice issues

H1N1 and Mass
The H1N1 influenza has raised questions about participation in Mass relative to the spread of the virus. At this point in time, we are following the suggestions of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, which is to take the normal precautions appropriate for the common flu season. Specifically, if you are ill, stay home; don’t attend Mass. If you are not feeling completely healthy, don’t shake hands (or hug) at the sign of peace, and don’t receive communion from the cup. Wash your hands frequently. For information about the H1N1 virus, symptoms, and what you should do if you think you have it, go to http://www.udayton.edu/flu.

Family Weekend Mass
Sunday, September 27 UD welcomes the families of students in a special way next Sunday by celebrating the 10am Mass in the Frericks Center. There will be no 10am or noon Mass in the chapel on September 27. Masses will still be celebrated at 6pm, and 8pm in the Immaculate Conception Chapel, and at 9pm in the McGinnis Center.

Reading I: Wisdom 2:12, 17-20
Responsorial Psalm: 54:3-4, 5, 6, 8
Reading II: James 3:16 - 4:3

Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, “Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me.” Mark 9:36
