DAYTON, O., Apr. 19--John Messenger, a junior from Marion, O., has been named general chairman of the University of Dayton's first Spring Festival Week, May 14 through May 18. The announcement was made by Robert Saunders, president of the Student Council, sponsor of the five-day affair.

The festival, designed to include the cultural, social, athletic and religious activities of the University, will open Wednesday night, May 14, with a jazz concert and close Sunday afternoon, May 18, with a religious theme.

Ray Mullman and Bill Caiaccio, both juniors, are co-chairman of the cultural committee, Pete Huber, a senior, is heading the Senior Farewell dance Saturday night, Norb Young, a sophomore, leads the athletic program and Patricia Flanigan, a sophomore, is chairman of the religious committee.
