SUBMITTED BY: Academic Policies Committee of the Academic Senate, Faculty Affairs Committee of the Academic Senate, and the Student Academic Policies Committee of the Academic Senate.

DATE: December 5, 1997 APPROVED BY: Executive Committee of the Academic Senate

ACTION IS: Legislative

REFERENCE IS: Faculty Handbook, Pg. 47-48

DESCRIPTION OF PROPOSAL:

The Executive Committee of the Academic Senate recommends that the Senate endorse the attached "Statement on Dignity" and ask the Provost to request that it appear as a statement of principle in all relevant University publications, including the Student Handbook, the Staff Handbook, and the Faculty Handbook. The Executive Committee also recommends that the Senate seek endorsements of this statement from the Student Government Association, the Student Life Council, the Human Resources Committee, Professional Office Personnel, the Employee Union, the Research Institute, the local chapter of the AAUP, the Association for Women, and the Faculty Board. The Executive Committee believes that extensive discussion of the "Statement on Dignity" should provide a significant opportunity to educate the entire University community on the respectful treatment of all people.
