

Ethnic Diversity Source

Give researchers a dedicated resource covering the culture, traditions, social treatment and lived experiences of different ethnic groups in America.

Content Covers:

- African Americans
- Arab Americans
- Asian Americans
- European Americans
- Jewish Americans
- Latinx Americans
- Native Americans
- Multiracial Americans

Content Includes:

- 469 active full-text journals, magazines and newspapers (growing to 500+)
- 354 active full-text peer-reviewed journals
- 217 active full-text peer-reviewed non-open access journals

Content Will Help Researchers:

- Analyze concepts of ethnic studies
- Critically discuss the intersection of race and ethnicity as influenced by oppression
- Describe how struggle, justice and liberation are relevant to current issues
- Demonstrate active engagement with anti-racist issues beyond the classroom

Additional Content Sources:

- 5,400+ full-text e-books
- 2,200+ full-text biographies
- 30,000+ full-text speeches
- 10,000+ full-text interviews
- 7,000+ full-text letters
- 1,200+ relevant, curated videos from the Associated Press

