The University of Dayton Summer Appalachia program (UDSAP), is a program in which about twelve students spend nine weeks living with the people of Eastern Kentucky. It is a program with a 46 year long commitment to Magoffin County.

UDSAP comes out of our Catholic, Christian and Marianist Tradition of faith, love, respect for all people and the call from God to be of service to others. One learns to respect other people and their culture by spending quality time living in their culture and establishing open, trusting relationships. UDSAP involves a process of giving and receiving: students give of their time, energy and talents and receive the trust, friendship and talents of the people of Salyersville, KY.

The UD students run a Day Camp for young children every morning, a Teen Center for high school age children in the evenings and visit the elderly in the local nursing home. In the afternoons and on weekends the UD students visit many families in the area. Through all of these activities the UD students learn about the history and culture of the area, get to know the joys and problems of the people, and build wonderful friendships and relationships. The UD students live in Christian community. They form community by sharing prayer and meals in common, and by working hard on the service programs. They live simply and take time to be with each other developing strong and lasting friendships.

Interested? There will be two informational meetings on Wednesday, December 9 and on Thursday December 10 at 7:30pm at the Marianist Community, 301 Kiefaber St. Come and see if this might be a good service program for you.

Get Involved in Service and Justice

Domestic Spring BreakOuts
Offered by the Center for Social Concern.
Looking for a great way to spend your time over spring break? BreakOut trips offer an opportunity to work with organizations and people working for change in the United States. Trips travel to Chicago, East St Louis, New Orleans, Trenton, Salyersville, Bloomington, and a Civil Rights Tour of the South. Each BreakOut, though different, focuses on issues of poverty, racism, and social injustice. Groups will learn about the issues and have an opportunity to work toward solidarity and change through service and learning. Registration is on a first come, first serve basis from January 11-15.
For more information, go to campus.udayton.edu/~csc.

December 8 Christmas On Campus
Changes of Mass times on December 8.
Why are there four Masses in the Chapel this year on December 8 instead of one Mass in the Frericks following Christmas on Campus? The diversity of Mass times this year makes it easier for more people to go to Mass. Having only one late-evening Mass isn't very convenient for people with children, or older people, or people with early classes the next day! Plus it only seems appropriate to celebrate the Feast of the Immaculate Conception in a Chapel named for it!

Mass Schedule for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception in the Chapel on December 8 is as follows:
9am, 12:05pm, 4:30pm, 9pm
