FRIDAY, SEPT. 6: CARTOONIST MIKE PETERS WILL RECALL SCHOOL DAYS FOR UD TEACHER EDUCATION STUDENTS

Dayton Daily News cartoonist Mike Peters, whose editorial cartoons and comic strip Mother Goose and Grimm are syndicated in more than 650 newspapers, will talk about his school days and pursuit of cartooning to University of Dayton teacher education students and area high school students from 10 to 10:45 a.m. Friday, Sept. 6, in the Kennedy Union west ballroom on campus.

Judy Eggemeier, teacher-in-residence in UD’s school of education and allied professions, said approximately 60 UD students and 60 journalism and art students from Northmont High School in Clayton will attend the session. An additional 130 seats will be set up for other UD students and faculty who want to attend.

Peters began drawing political and editorial cartoons for the Dayton Daily News in 1969, and added Mother Goose and Grimm to the lineup in 1984. His work is frequently featured in Newsweek, Time and U.S. News and World Report, and has earned Peters a Pulitzer Prize among a number of other awards and honors.
