Putting the Power of Film at the Service of the Poor
Tuesday, February 23, 7:00pm
Gerry Straub, former Hollywood TV producer, just back from Haiti, will be speaking at Ball Theatre. He explores how film transforms people’s hearts and can be used to serve the poor. His film shed light on poverty and its crushing impact in both human and spiritual dimensions. Gerry fleshes out the Gospel call to care for “the least” in our society through his own conversion story and with powerful clips from his many films.

Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper & Prayer
Tuesday, February 16, 9pm-11pm
Join UDIM as we celebrate Shrove Tuesday or Mardi Gras with a Pancake Supper & Prayer in Liberty Hall 08. We will share in pancakes and reflect on repentance as we prepare to enter the Lenten season.
