Palm Sunday and Triduum

Today begins a special celebration for Catholics of the Paschal Mystery: Christ's life, death and resurrection. Palm Sunday celebrates Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem, which marks both his majesty and humility, his glory and pain. We hear accounts of Christ's passion from the Synoptic Gospels. The celebration continues with the Triduum (Latin for “three days”), the most important time in the Church year. Although each day celebrates events in Jesus' life, we don't “reenact” during Triduum; it is mystery, not history, we celebrate.

On Holy Thursday, we hear the Gospel account of Jesus washing the feet of the disciples, an act that shows us what “servant leadership” really means, and foreshadows Christ's death, made present to us in the Eucharist. On Good Friday, we joyfully, if solemnly, remember the death of Jesus. Why joy? Because Christ brings life through his acceptance of death. Good Friday finds us rejoicing in the Cross, once wretched, which now sets us free.

And on Saturday, after the sun goes down, we light a holy fire, and its light spreads like a glowing river of grace. We listen to the story of salvation from creation to the resurrection. Our newest members are numbered among the saints in Baptism, and with them we recall our own Baptismal promise. This year, UD students Sean Gretzinger, Michelle Ashcroft and Joshua Rogerson will enter the Church. Then together we share the Eucharist, the feast of Christ's victory over sin and death. This is the night of nights! For the lamb who was slain has risen, and death is destroyed forever!
