News - Dec 15 - 56

Mark Kelly of Cleveland, an engineering student, is new president of the University of Dayton's freshman class, it was announced Saturday. Elections were held on the campus ~~last~~^{5/} week.

Joseph Smith of Lakewood, O., was elected vice president; Deanne Weigle of Delphos, secretary, and William Brennan of Brooklyn, N.Y., treasurer.

Named by fellow freshmen ~~was~~² as their representatives to the student council were Patricia Flanigan of Springfield, and Gary Green of Cleveland Heights.

The elections in the freshman class are conducted at this late date to give new students an opportunity to become acquainted with classmates prior to selecting them for leadership positions.
