GREAT HUMILITY

GREAT HOPE

The beginning of a new academic year often fills us with great expectations (and sometimes great anxieties) about the year ahead. Excited to be together, making new friends and renewing old ones, we resolve to make this year better than the last, in nearly every way. For an academic community such as ours, the real time for New Year's Resolutions is now, not January 1st!

And yet, the scriptures of the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time call us to greatness through humility: "but the one who humbles himself (or herself) will be exalted."

What a wonderful invitation to refine our expectations for the year by taking them through the narrow gate of Jesus' cross and resurrection. Our success and our salvation are gifts from God. Our hope lies in Christ's saving love and action in our lives, not in our own resolutions, will-power or study habits.

Humbly trusting God to raise us to new life in Christ increases our hope for a great year at the same time that it decreases our anxiety – "It's not all up to me!" Such humble trust gives us greater patience with the inevitable failures, frustrations, and tensions that will be part of the year as well. Despite life's struggles, we live in greater peace and hope that "all things work to the good for those who love God."

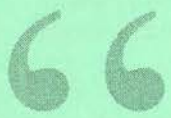

Welcome to UD for another academic year! May the Holy Trinity increase our humility, our hope, our peace and our joy this year!
