HUNGRY HEARTS

Have you ever found yourself wondering about your prayer life – how to pray or what the Church has to say about prayer? Or do you sometimes think about the person you are becoming and how being Catholic factors into that process? Maybe you’ve wondered about Mary the mother of Jesus and why she’s so important in the lives of Catholics, especially in this Marianist context. If you find any of these to be true or if you are curious about what the Church and your peers have to say, then Hungry Hearts is for you.

Hungry Hearts is a monthly program that allows participants to explore various aspects of the Catholic faith. We gather in the Torch Lounge of Kennedy Union at 7:30pm one Wednesday a month for a presentation and discussion over desserts and coffee. Hungry Hearts is open to all members of the University of Dayton community, whether Catholic or not.

We are very excited about this semester’s Hungry Hearts.
