UDIM: Centered on Christ-Commonalities!

Who is UDIM and what do they do here at UD? The UD Interdenominational Ministry (UDIM) is a community of Christians from various traditionally Protestant backgrounds. We gather in spite of denominational differences and because of Christ-commonalities.

Students at UD who may not be Catholic but seek a community of like-minded souls striving for the common spiritual strength and wisdom of God can find that home in UDIM. A group of student leaders joins Rev. LaKendra Hardware in helping shape and articulate various ministry opportunities, including worship and Bible study weekly in addition to various programming throughout the semester (retreats, fellowship events, etc.). If you would like to be added to our list so that you don't miss out on what we're planning, please be sure to email Rev. LaKendra (lhardware1).

Our fall retreat is November 5-7, and we invite persons interested in "Finding Faith: Discerning the Divine Daily" to join us from Friday through Sunday. We will head to Governor's Island for a wonderful time of pause and pursuit of God's wisdom in our lives. Ever wonder what's on the other side of your "now" moment in God's sight? For registration go to www.udayton.edu/ministry

Come join us and let's peer into God's word and presence together!

Rev. LaKendra & the UDIM Leadership Team (Amanda, Lauren, Brittny, Winston & Danielle)

Family Rosary Rally is today, Sunday at 3pm at the University of Dayton Arena Sunday, with Prelude Music at 2:30pm. For details go to website: www.rosary-rally.com

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our

Service Program of the Week:

Sustainability Club

educates the UD community about green, sustainable practices and the human costs of environmental problems. We work with the university to adopt sustainable practices.

Quote Of the Week

If God does not hear our prayer in the way that we can see, let us go on praying all the same. St. Julie Billiart
