Four Daytonians have been elected to office in the student branch of the Association for Childhood Education International, recently established on the University of Dayton campus.

Nicolene MacGregor, 10 Ivanhoe avenue, is president; Gerry Martin, 1515 Troy street, secretary; Mary Sell, 3035 Snyder road, treasurer, and Barbara Breunig, 4280 Murdock avenue, publicity secretary. All are freshmen in education.

More than 30 students preparing to become kindergarten or elementary teachers have become members of the group which has Dr. Simon Chavez, assistant professor of education, as moderator.

Main project of the new organization is the aiding of handicapped children of the Dayton area, particularly those at the Kennedy School.
