Results of 1957-1958 Class Elections at the University of Dayton
Results of class elections for the University of Dayton's 1957-58 school year, held on the campus Wednesday and Thursday, were announced last night by the UD student council.

They are as follows:

Class of 1958: John Higgins, Lorain, president; Thomas Zins, Cincinnati, vice president; Lois Reichling, Cincinnati, secretary; Donald Dunson, Dayton, treasurer; and Thomas Gascoigne, Lorain; David Liberto, Hammonton, N.J.; Michael Craig, Xenia; Robert Saunders, Bronxville, N.Y., and Marilee Faust, Dayton, representatives to the student council.

Class of 1959: John Messenger, Marion, president; Kevin Moriarty, Long Beach, N.Y., vice president; William Lanese, South Euclid, treasurer; Catherine O'Neill, Chicago, secretary; and William Caiaccio, Rosedale, N.Y.; Leonard Salm, Sidney; Nicholas Uva, Stamford, Conn., and Patricia Mulligan, Oak Harbor, representatives to the student council.

Class of 1960: William Brennan, Brooklyn, president; Anthony Asher, Lakewood, vice president; Terry Bockhorn, Campbell Hill, Ill., treasurer; Judy Baker, Dayton, secretary; and Joseph Smith, Owensboro, Ky.; Gary Green, Cleveland Heights, and Patricia Flanagan, Springfield, representatives to the student council.