Mark your calendars!
The Marianist Family around the world is planning a year-long celebration of the 250th anniversary of the birth of Marianist Founder Blessed Fr. William Joseph Chaminade, beginning on Chaminade's feast day.

Please mark your calendars now: Saturday, January 22, 2011, UD will host a special Mass and Reception for the Marianist Family of the Dayton/Cincinnati area beginning at 4:00pm in the RecPlex. (The Mass on Saturday evening will observe the following Sunday’s liturgy, and the Mass schedule on Sunday, January 23 will be abbreviated, with Masses at 10am and 8pm.)

Other campus events being planned include lectures, reading groups, art displays, a conference on lay ministry, and the commissioning of a statue of Blessed Chaminade for the Central Mall. On Friday, April 8, 2011, (Chaminade’s birthday) Archbishop Schnurr will celebrate Mass in the Immaculate Conception Chapel at 12:05pm, followed by a reception in Kennedy Union with lots of birthday cake!

The Marianist Family (lay communities, sisters, brothers and priests) in the US and around the world has grown tremendously in the last 50 years, and this occasion finds us at an exciting point in our history. Come gather on January 22 with others who have been touched by the Marianist spirit or have committed themselves to the Marianist mission.

Please watch your e-mail for further announcements and invitations.
