Quote of the Week

"Nothing is so strong as gentleness, nothing so gentle as true strength.
St. Francis de Sales"

Volunteering After Graduation

"I feel like I made a real difference in several people's lives."

"Now I know what the next step on my career path is."

"The community I lived in was an awesome source of support during some tough times."

"My faith really deepened thanks to both the service I did and the reflections we had about it."

"I got great work experience to put on my resume."

These are a few comments that UD grads have made about their decision to volunteer full-time after graduation for a year or two. If this is something you have ever considered, or maybe you're considering it for the first time now as you read this, you should definitely come to the Beyond UD Panel Supper on Tuesday, February 8 at 5:45pm in Liberty Hall RM 08 to find out more. Here, a panel of people who have volunteered in a wide variety of programs and places, will talk briefly about their experiences, then open the floor for your questions.

The supper will be a simple one of soup and salad (volunteers usually live and eat simply!). We need to know how many are coming. So, please RSVP to njc@udayton.edu or 937-229-2576 by Friday, Feb. 4.

Warning: You could become, as the Jesuit Volunteer Corps tagline says, "ruined for life!"

Special Thanks...
Thanks to all the students who went on the you.MLK.us Retreat! We look forward to the continuing of the conversation and action that began on this retreat. If you are interested in joining the conversation contact Center for Social Concern, campus ministry retreats, UD Interdenominational Ministries, or Office of Multicultural Affairs!

Thank you to the 122 students, staff, and faculty who participated in Winter BreakOuts this January. They volunteered, shared, and learned in communities in Belize, Bloomington, Chicago, Ecuador, El Salvador, Honduras, Mobile, New Orleans, Tijuana, and Trenton. This exchange of love, care, faith, and friendship surely brings us all closer together as a Global Community. Students interested in BreakOuts in the future, please refer to the Center for Social Concern website at www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc/BreakOuts.

Thank you to everyone who participated in Pax Christi's Gift Tree during the advent season. We not only met our goal of 100 gifts donated, but we surpassed it allowing the University of Dayton community to help provide a Christmas present to 164 children in the Dayton area who otherwise would not have had one. Both Pax Christi and Good Neighbor House thank you!
