Worship of the Eucharist Outside of Mass

Celebrating the Eucharist at Mass every Sunday is the most important practice in the Catholic faith. "The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy tells us the celebration of the Eucharist is the source and summit of the whole Christian life. All that we do as a Catholic community of faith should lead up to and flow from the celebration of the Mass." (Archdiocese of Cincinnati, Guidelines for Adoration and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament 13) Additionally, the faithful have the opportunity to draw closer to the Eucharist outside of Mass, to deepen their relationship with Christ. Worship of the Eucharist outside of Mass, or Adoration, allows for a "more active and conscious participation in the Mass" and is "one way in which we offer thanks and praise for the gift of Christ's presence in the Eucharist." (GAEB 13) Through this practice, the Catholic community draws both closer together and closer to Christ. One form of Adoration is when the Eucharist is displayed in a special receptacle such as a monstrance or ciborium. This "Exposition" of the Eucharist provides a chance for personal and public prayer and is always seen in its relationship to the Mass (GAEB 16-18). This tradition is one which does not replace attendance at Mass, but rather enhances it by bringing the faithful to a fuller understanding and appreciation of the importance of the Eucharist.

UD offers Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament every Tuesday-Thursday, 5:30pm-9pm in Alumni Hall Chapel. All are welcome. Contact Jimmy Fritchman fritchjp@notes.udayton.edu for more information.
