FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

Congressman Charles W. Whalen, Jr. (R-Ohio) today announced approval of a $103,280 grant to recruit, train and find jobs for the hard-core unemployed in the Greater Dayton Area.

The funds will be provided to the Opportunities Industrialization Center, 1818 West Third Street, by the Department of Commerce.

The Center will seek out the unemployed and underemployed and offer counseling and pre-vocational training to prepare for specialized skill training needed for permanent jobs.

Approximately 125 persons can be given training by the center in a 12-month period.

The center's services will be available throughout the Dayton area but the primary target area will be the "inner West Dayton" section, which has been designated as the Model Cities area.
