University of Dayton. Campus Ministry
MIRYAM AWARD
RECIPIENTS

The Miryam Award is granted to those who advocate for women and create a culture that supports women on campus. This year’s recipients are Dr. Judith Martin, SSJ, and UD seniors Claire Hampel and Annie Buscemi.

Dr. Judith Martin, Professor Emeritus, served as a faculty in Religious Studies for 30 years, as director of Women’s and Gender Studies (1990-1995), and as a long serving member of the Women’s and Gender Studies Committee (1985-2010). Her list of accomplishments at UD includes: initiating the Association for Women Faculty, Administrators and Professionals; urging for developing the Women’s Center; drafting the proposal to create the Women and Culture cluster; developing sessions to promote gender-balanced curriculum. Her efforts in the advocacy of women at UD will bear fruit much beyond her tenure here.

Claire Hampel and Annie Buscemi are senior UD students and co-founders of the service club Solidarity, which empowers, builds character, and creates role models for female youth in the Dayton community. The active passion of these women makes a difference on campus and in our community. Solidarity creates a means for others, students, faculty and staff to promote and empower women. Annie and Claire embody leadership that others can emulate that has the power to transform our world.

Come to the Miryam Award prayer service on Thursday, March 24 at 4:30pm in the Immaculate Conception Chapel, followed by an award presentation and reception in Chaminade Hall 102. To RSVP for the reception, call 937-229-2524.

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our is a club who promotes mental health awareness on campus through advocacy, education, understanding and support. They host service projects, student and professional panels, mental health screening day, awareness days, and their biggest event: M-Fest, which is an all day music and art festival celebrating mental health awareness.

Second collection this weekend will be for the people of Japan. All the money will be given to Catholic Relief Services which will then be sent to Caritas Japan. Please make checks payable to CRS.

Directed Retreat for Graduate Students
May 19-27
Could eight days of silent prayer and reflection be just what you need? On this unique retreat experience, grad students will meet daily, one-on-one, with a director who will help them deepen their relationship with God. $150.00 per retreatant covers accommodations and meals at St. John XXIII Pastoral Center, Charlestown, WV. Contact Fr. Dave McGuigan, S.M. for an application at 937-229-4241 or dmcguigan1@notes.udayton.edu

Interfaith Passover Seder
Monday, April 11, 6pm
All are invited to the Interfaith Passover Seder in the Kennedy Union Ballroom. It will feature a mock Passover Seder plus a full meal, and will be an educational event in order to increase awareness of Jewish traditions on campus. The event is open to the public and tickets are available for $5 starting on Monday, March 14 at the Kennedy Union Box Office. We are hoping this will be a unique celebration that will turn into a long line of year-round Jewish/interfaith activities on campus! Contact Jacob Rosen at udjrosen@gmail.com with any questions.
