IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CONTEST

MARCH 25, 1954 — the Feast of the Annunciation — is the deadline for all entries in the Immaculate Conception Contest being sponsored by the Marian Library for collegians and seminarians in the United States and Canada.

There is still time to enter if you write for the rules and quotations today. Fifteen prizes, including a first prize of $40.00 and a choice of three Marian books, await the winners.

A word of advice: the contest was designed in such a way that we do not expect very many contestants to find all of the quotations. Therefore, DO NOT REFRAIN FROM SENDING IN YOUR RESULTS SIMPLY BECAUSE YOU HAVE NOT FOUND EVERY SINGLE QUOTATION.

Hints on the Quotes: There are no recent books on the Immaculate Conception available in English. Several older works on the subject are:

McKenna:	The Immaculate Conception	Washington	1929
Ullathorne:	The Immaculate Conception	New York	1904
Bryant:	The Immaculate Conception	Boston	1855
Lambruschini:	The Immaculate Conception	New York	1860
Tormey:	The Immaculate Conception	Dublin	1855

CLUGNET COLLECTION

Our friends continue to help us reduce our debt on the famous Clugnet Collection which is now part of the Marian Library. Purchased at the cost of $6000 in November, the collection of more than 8,000 items is now two-thirds paid for. It is still our goal to have the debt completely wiped off the books by June, 1954.

TOTAL AMOUNTS AT THE END OF EACH MONTH —

October	$ 810.00
November	1162.00
December	1850.00
January	3016.00
February	3911.00

MARIAN INSTITUTES

The Second Annual MARIAN INSTITUTE of the Marian Library will feature the theme: The Immaculate Conception and the Modern World. The three day meeting (June 10, 11, 12) will study the dogma of the Immaculate Conception, Mary in Education, and the Role of Mary in the Apostolate.

Special MARIAN INSTITUTES will also be given on request during the Marian Year by the Marianists. Sisterhoods are invited to sponsor such Institutes at their Mother-houses to fit their special needs. Other groups, such as Sodalitys, Legion of Mary, and other organizations, may also sponsor such an Institute.

At this date, special Institutes are scheduled for Dubuque, Iowa, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Cleveland, Ohio.

FATHER JOHN J. SCANLON, S.J.

Early February, Father Scanlon, present retreat-preacher from Syracuse, N.Y., visited the Marian Library and left a copy of his own translation of THE CROWN OF OUR LADY WHICH WAS WOVEN BY THE LOWLY ADDAI SHIL OF SEERT. This work was originally written in Aramaic, the very language which Our Lady spoke. The Marian Library hopes to publish this translation in Marian Year.
