NEWS RELEASE

AWARD-WINNING SAXOPHONIST WILL PERFORM IN UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON CONCERT

DAYTON, Ohio — Award-winning saxophonist Bobby Streng, a third-year music performance major at the University of Dayton, will perform as guest soloist in a free and public concert at UD.

Streng, a winner in the Dayton philharmonic orchestra concerto competition, will perform Carnival of Venice in the concert at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 8, in the Kennedy Union Boll Theatre.

The concert will also feature the University of Dayton concert band, directed by music professors Linda Hartley and James Latten, and symphonic wind ensemble, directed by music professor Patrick Reynolds.

Selections will include compositions by Percy Grainger, John Paulson, David Holsinger and others.

For more information, call the University of Dayton music department at (937) 229-3936.
