1954 MARIANIST AWARD TO FATHER NEUBERT

The 1954 Marianist Award has been conferred on Rev. Emil Neubert, S.M. well-known Mariologist, writer, and spiritual director. The University of Dayton gives the Marianist Award each year on December 8th to honor one "who has demonstrated most publicly in his own life devotion to the Mother of God and has instilled that devotion in others."

Father Neubert was born in Ri-beauville, France, in 1878 and was ordained in 1906. He spent 14 years in the United States as novice-master of the American provinces of the Society of Mary. He was director of the International Marianist Seminary in Fribourg, Switzerland, from 1923 to 1949. He is now chaplain at Institut Sainte-Marie, La Tour de Scay, France. Father Neubert's most popular work, My Ideal; Jesus, Son of Mary (Maryhurst Press, 1947) has been translated into more than a dozen languages. Three of his other books are also available in English: Mary in Doctrine (Bruce, 1954), Queen of Militants (Grail, 1947), and Living with Mary (Marianist Publications, 1954).

Previous Marianist Awards have gone to Rev. Juniper B. Carol O. F.M. (1950), Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S. J. (1951), Rev. Patrick Peyton, C.S.C. (1952), and M. Roger Brien (1953).

THE LOURDES BUREAU

Some of our readers may still be unfamiliar with the Lourdes Bureau established several years ago by the Marist Fathers in Boston. The purpose of the bureau is to promote devotion to Our Lady of Lourdes and to increase interest in her shrine. Echoes from Lourdes, a quarterly newsletter, is available free of charge. The bureau also handles books and leaflets on Lourdes, and supplies Lourdes Water on individual request. Suitable offering to cover costs of shipping and handling should accompany requests. Write to: Lourdes Bureau, 27 Isabella St., Boston 16, Mass.
