AN AMERICAN MARIOLOGY

A landmark in the history of American Mariology has been reached in January with the publication of the first volume of MARIOLOGY (Bruce $6.75), a symposium of articles by outstanding American scholars writing in English on the history and sources of Mariology. The collection is edited by Father J. B. Carol, O.F.M., founder of the Mariological Society of America. The following studies are included in volume one:

Eamon R. Carroll, O. Carm.: Mary in the Documents of the Magisterium

Eric May, O.F.M.Cap.: Mary In The Old Testament

Michael J. Gruenthaner, S.J.: Mary in the New Testament

Alfred C. Rush, C.S.S.R.: Mary in the Apocrypha of the New Testament

Cuthbert Gumbinger, O.F.M.Cap.: Mary in the Eastern Liturgies

George W. Shea: Outline History of Mariology in the Middle Ages and Modern Times

Simeon Daly, O.S.B.: Mary in the Western Liturgy

Aidan Carr, O.F.M. Conv. and Germain Williams, O.F.M.Conv.: Mary's Immaculate Conception

Salvatore Bonano, O.F.M.: Mary's Immunity from Actual Sin

Richard Kugelman, C.P.: The Holy Name Of Mary

The first volume in the series of three covers history and sources, beginning with the Old Testament and continuing into modern times. Volume two, when published, will cover Marian theology, and volume three, devotion to the Blessed Virgin.

Father Carol has an international reputation as a Marian scholar and he has called on eleven authorities in various branches of theology to contribute to the first volume. MARIOLOGY is the only work of its kind in the English language and marks a significant step forward in American Mariology. It belongs in all college, university, and seminary libraries. Every religious and rectory library will also need it.

Father Carol and the Bruce Publishing Company deserve the thanks of all those interested in the study of Mariology.

PROTESTANTS and the DIVINE MATERNITY

Reports from 100 Protestant ministers to a recent questionnaire showed that 64 percent do not believe in the Divine Maternity, that is, that Mary is the Mother of God. Of the remaining 36 percent, 21 ministers expressed belief in the Divine Maternity, and 15 percent were uncertain.

These statistics were given by Father Kenneth Dougherty, S.A., of the Atonement Seminary, Washington, D.C., in a paper, "Contemporary American Protestant Attitudes Toward the Divine Maternity," read at the sixth annual convention of the Mariological Society of America in St. Louis early in January.

Father Dougherty said that the most common reason given by the ministers for denying the Divine Maternity was the mistaken belief that the Catholic Church divinizes Our Lady. This charge of Mariolatry "could be corrected by a visit to any Catholic Church," he concluded.

The Marian Library hopes to publish a more detailed report on Father Dougherty's study in the Marian Reprint series, and also in a future issue of the Marianist magazine.

The January Marian Reprint was "Our Lady at Home" by Father Richard T. A. Murphy, O.P. The February Reprint (No. 32) is a study of the spiritual value of the Scapular by Father Henry Esteve, O. Carm.
