The election of new members to the Education Students' Council was the feature of an assembly held last Wednesday, September 25, in the library auditorium. The students elected to the Council are:

Elementary Education: Lois Reichling and Janie Busch; Physical Education: Bill Ries and Patty Gerlach; Home Economics: Ruth Dempsey and Agnes Poppalardo; Music Education: Judith Brunschwylor and Jim Wolf;

Presiding at the meeting was Connie McKale, chairman of the nominating committee. Participating in the program were: Lois Reichling, who gave a report on the returns of the questionnaire to Education graduates, and Richard Dixon, who gave an account of the activities and achievements of the Education Students' Council during the past year. Father George Barrett, assistant dean of Education, gave the opening invocation and presented the chairman.
