Quote

Of the Week
from Blessed William Joseph Chaminade

Faith is like an energy in us.

Callings

This Sunday's second reading from Philippians calls us to reflect on the ways we conduct ourselves in daily life. Paul emphasizes his call to be on earth, in the flesh, to use his gifts for the benefit of others. How do we use our gifts for others in our everyday lives? How does this affect our vocation as students, teachers, ministers, children, parents, siblings, and the many places we find ourselves?

Campus Ministry's Program for Christian Leadership (PCL) focuses on this theme of vocational exploration. Each summer PCL offers Callings for incoming first-year students. This 4 day program (offered for multiple sessions), explores the vocational calling of a student, and the Christian call to learn, lead and serve while engaging students in the University of Dayton Community and the City of Dayton.

Callings also offers leadership experience to UD students who are willing to use and expand their gifts to contribute to our University community. Exploration of these gifts occurs through a 1-credit mini-course offered for selected student leaders that prepares them to walk with first-year students in their transition into college. If you are interested in applying to serve on the Callings 2012 student leadership team please check the Campus Ministry website or contact Mike Bennett at bennettm2@notes.udayton.edu or at 937-229-2575. It is not required that you attended Callings to serve as a leader.

May we all be attentive to our own gifts as well as the needs of the many communities around us so that we walk with each other as we seek to embody God's grace.

Missal, Mass and Mission

The Confiteor is a communal prayer expressing both personal acknowledgement of sinfulness and an expression of sorrow for our sins. The Confiteor prayer has gone through various translations. The version we have been saying these last 35 years omitted the phrase; Through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault.

With the new translation method, these words are back. Praying them provides an opportunity to align our voices with our hearts as we begin Mass.

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our Service Program of the Week: Sustainability educates the UD community about green, sustainable practices and the human costs of environmental problems. We work with the university to adopt sustainable practices and collaborate with UD on awareness raising events.

Recycle, Reinvent, RE-ENVISION!
Friday, September 30, 3pm-6pm, KU Plaza
UD is hosting an “Art-off” competition to raise funds for K-12 Gallery for Young People. Teams composed of students, faculty, staff or any combination of 3-4 members sponsored by a department or campus organization, will have 30 minutes to complete an art project with a box of materials they will be provided. The materials will be a surprise, so adaptability is an asset to your team. The goal is to have fun being creative, no need to be a professional artist. Groups can sponsor a team for $150. If you wish to donate but not participate, please indicate that in your email. For more information and questions please contact Susan Byrnes at ArtStreet at byrnes@udayton.edu

“One C2C” Neighborhood Sheet Contest
Spread the message about what it means to contribute to community at UD by creating a sheet for your house based on the UD’s Commitment to Community. Prizes include a catered meal for your house and 10 friends. Pick up all paint supplies and contest information at the Fellow house (222 Keifaber), beginning on Monday Sept 26. Sheet entries are due on October 12. Contact Christina Smith, 9-3512 for more information.

Wilderness Retreats
Women’s: September 30 – October 2
Men’s: October 6-8
Go take a hike! Discover yourself, God and new friends as the team leads you through the stunning beauty of Red River Gorge, Kentucky. Hiking by day and sleeping under the stars at night, experience a weekend of prayer and simplicity. Cost: $40, includes all meals and transportation. Spots are filled on a first come, first served basis. Register online at http://www2.udayton.edu/ministry/index.php Questions? Contact Katrina Hamilton at hamiltonk3@notes.udayton.edu

Low Gluten Hosts
Low Gluten hosts are now available for individuals who cannot tolerate gluten. These hosts meet the requirements set forth by the Roman Catholic Church for communion in terms of ingredients and gluten content. They are endorsed for use by the Holy See and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Questions? Please contact Kathy Sales at ksales1@notes.udayton.edu or 229-2211.

Radical Gospel Living:
Monasticism Today Conference
November 4-5, Ohio Wesleyan University
This ecumenical conference will explore the monastic vocation through inspiring keynote speakers, Joan Chittister and Shane Claiborne, engaging workshops, and opportunities to meet with individuals who are living radical gospel lives in diverse monastic and intentional communities of faith. Individuals will have the opportunity to explore ‘traditional’ and ‘new’ forms of monasticism, the call to live the Gospel while rooted in a community of faith seeking together to live the will of God. Interested in attending with a UD student group? Registration deadline is October 28 Questions? Contact: Becca Muder at becca.ud.stuartministry@gmail.com or 229-2211.

Thinking of Volunteering After Graduation?

Come to the Beyond UD Post-grad Volunteer Fair in the College Park Center, sixth floor to get information from over 40 different organizations. Questions? Contact Nick Cardilino at njc@udayton.edu

Perspectives on Faith and Life
Harry Potter & the Sacramental Imagination
Monday, October 10, 6:30-8:30pm
Emily Strand, Religious Studies, will present at our first Perspectives on Faith & Life. What is a ‘sacramental imagination,’ and how does it shape the way Christians create and encounter literature and other art forms? Are the Harry Potter books shaped by this imagination and do they foster it? Join students, staff and faculty for a free dinner and talk followed by facilitated table discussion in Potter dialogue in the Barrett Dining Room (KU). RSVP to pfls@notes.udayton.edu no later than Wed., October 5.
