University of Dayton students will gather at 1 p.m. Wednesday (Oct. 16) in the fieldhouse for their second annual Community Chest rally, U.D. officials announced today.

The Campus Chest Day assembly will include brief presentations by Chest and University officials and the "passing of the hat" by U.D.'s Flyerettes.

On the program will be the Very Rev. Andrew L. Seebold, S.M., U.D. president; Student Chairman Thomas Gascoigne of Lorain, O., and Mason C. Benner, U.D. director of development and associate chairman of the public-civic division for this year's campaign.

At last year's Red Feather Day rally, students contributed $1,000 to the campaign.
