Mass. Catholics, including myself, have come to understand this word to be the thing we go to on Sundays. However, the Mass isn't simply an event that we go to, it is an experience we come from. The Latin origin of Mass, mittere, means to send. Then to truly take part in the Mass we are called to go forth from the end of Mass on Sunday to engage in the world around us, to carry out Christ's mission from Monday through Saturday. We are sent not only to carry out this mission on campus, but in our city as well.

My experience on the REAL Dayton last fall taught me of my potential to get involved in the community I live in, which for 8 months out of the year is Dayton. Over the 4 day breakout I discovered new understandings of service, discovered new gems hidden within the city, discovered new friends to share experiences with, and most of all discovered the potential I have, and all of us have, to become a part of the fabric of wherever we live.

We are called to be a force within the world, but in order to do that we must break down the barriers that divide us and become part of the world. So come, join us as we reach out, encounter Dayton, act for others, and lead together.

Sunday Readings

Reading I: Exodus 32: 7-11, 13-14
Responsorial Psalm: 51:3-4, 12-13, 17, 19
Reading II: 1 Timothy 1:12-17
Gospel: Luke 15: 1-32

*A clean heart create for me, O God,
and a steadfast spirit renew within me.
Cast me not out from your presence,
and your Holy Spirit take not from me.
Psalm: 51: 12-13*

All are invited to a Blue Mass on Friday, Sept. 16, at 12:30pm in the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception where we will honor those who are first responders at UD - including our public safety officers and emergency medical service members (formerly known as rescue squad).

Quote Of the Week

“Every time you smile at someone, it is an action of love, a gift to that person, a beautiful thing.”

Saint Teresa

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our

Service Program of the Week: Appalachia Club

Appalachia Club works to promote awareness of Appalachian culture and issues at the University of Dayton both on and off campus. As a service club, cultural events are planned which celebrate the vibrant culture of Appalachia. For the past 50 years UD students have also been building relationships in Magoffin Co., Kentucky through the UD Summer Appalachia Program (UDSAP), Spring Breakouts, and Plunges.
