Appointment of two new department chairmen and a new faculty member with the rank of associate professor were announced today by the Very Rev. Andrew L. Seebold, S.M., University of Dayton president.

Fr. Adrian McCarthy, S.M., who was awarded his doctorate in English by Fordham University this summer, has been named chairman of the departments of English and speech.

A former faculty member at Chaminade high school in Dayton (1943-45, 1946-47) and Army chaplain in the Phillipines and Japan in 1945 and 1946, he will have the rank of assistant professor.

Fr. McCarthy is a University of Dayton graduate of 1934 and in addition to Fordham, studied at the Marianist International Seminary in Fribourg, Switzerland, and the Marianist House of Studies in Washington, D.C. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1942.

Named chairman of the department of nursing, with the rank of assistant professor, was Miss Ann Franklin of Maplewood, Mo., who since 1953 has been an assistant professor of nursing at St. Louis University.

Miss Franklin has a bachelor's degree in nursing supervision from Washington University, St. Louis, and a master's degree in nursing education from St. Louis U.

Also named to the department of nursing was Mary E. Horrigan of Eaton who has been assistant director of nursing education at the St. Elizabeth Hospital school of nursing since 1954. Miss Horrigan will have the rank of associate professor.
She received a diploma from the Miami Valley Hospital school of nursing, her bachelor's degree in nursing education and her master's degree from U.D. She has done graduate work at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.; University of Chicago, Ohio State and Miami.

Miss Horrigan was president of the Ohio League of Nursing Education from 1950 to 1952 and president of the Ohio League of Nursing from 1954 to 1958 and treasurer of the latter group in 1950 and 1951.

She is a director of Catholic Charities of Dayton, Montgomery County Mental Health Association and Zonta International Service Club, and is a former director of Metropolitan Health Council and the Dayton Council of Catholic Nurses.
