Congressman Charles W. Whalen, Jr. (R-Ohio) this week announced approval of 10 grants totalling $845,657 for activities in the Third Congressional District.

The grants, by agency financing them, are as follows:

Housing and Urban Development Department

1. A $144,573 grant under the Neighborhood Facilities Program to Montgomery County to assist in financing the construction of the proposed Community Service Center in the Drexel-Crown Point-Townview area. The Center, to be located at 6175 West Third Street, will provide a variety of health, welfare, recreational, educational and Community Action Program services to low and moderate income residents.

2. A $31,325 Open Space Land Program grant to assist in the development of the first phase of the total DeWeese Park master plan.

Health, Education and Welfare Department

1. A $396,905 grant to the Montgomery County Retarded Children's School to assist in the construction of a day camp facility for 518 mentally retarded children.

2. A $58,664 Comprehensive Health Planning grant to the Hospital Planning Council of the Greater Miami Valley for area wide planning.

3. A $58,629 Social and Rehabilitation Services grant to Goodwill Industries to provide for one new staff member and the purchase of equipment to train the handicapped.

Office of Economic Opportunity

1. A $106,028 grant to the Dayton Supporting Council on Preventive Effort for a special three-month summer program to benefit an estimated 1,500 youths of low-income families. Included are recreational, educational, cultural enrichment and job opportunity programs. Some 242 participants will receive employment opportunities within the program itself.

2. A $23,586 grant to Dayton SCOPE to provide improved planning capability and the planning of new programs within the existing community programs.

National Science Foundation

1. A $14,797 grant to the University of Dayton for general support of its science programs.

National Council on the Arts

1. A $650 grant to Werner J. Losh, of 5980 Little Sugar Creek Road, for costs incurred in the copying of the musical composition "Coronach."

2. A $500 grant to the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra Association for the commissioning of the musical composition "Coronach," written by Werner J. Losh.
