Third annual procurement conference, co-sponsored by the University of Dayton and the Dayton Association of Purchasing Agents will be at the Miami Hotel Oct. 23-24, it was announced today.

Conference director, for the third consecutive year, will be Dr. Howard T. Lewis, professor emeritus of the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

Purpose of the two-day meeting is to equip procurement personnel and others with a better understanding of the latest techniques, systems, procedures and policies in industrial procurement and materials management.
