Quote Of the Week

from Blessed William Joseph Chaminade

Our Work may meet opposition but it will succeed.

L'Arche BreakOut

"Every child, every person needs to know that they are a source of joy; every child, every person needs to be celebrated. Only when all of our weaknesses are accepted as a part of our humanity can our negative, broken self-images be transformed." (Jean Vanier, Becoming Human)
In March, the Center for Social Concern is sponsoring an opportunity to visit the L'Arche community of Erie, Pennsylvania. This new BreakOut will give students an opportunity to experience firsthand life within a L'Arche community.

Founded in 1963 by French philosopher and spiritual leader, Jean Vanier, L'Arche is an international movement comprised of communities of people with and without developmental disabilities that seek to share daily life together. The mission of L'Arche is centered on their call to "announce and be a witness to the vision of our common humanity." At L'Arche, "everyone is of unique and sacred value, and everyone has the same dignity and the same rights."

This Spring BreakOut will take place March 1-4. Students will assist and share in the mission of the L'Arche Erie community by participating in shared daily life, prayer, and reflection. Opportunities to learn about the L'Arche movement and the spirituality of Jean Vanier will also be included.

Application are due February 1 and can be found on the Center for Social Concern website: <http://www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc/>. Space is limited and awarded on a first-come, first-served basis. Missal, Mass and Mission

Where does the response, "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof..." come from? The prayer "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof..." echoes the words of Luke 7:7 in which the soldier puts his entire confidence in the Lord Jesus; this is exactly the same humble attitude we must have as we RECEIVE Holy Communion, a gift from the Lord, nourishing and strengthening us for holy living.

What are some of the new texts the priest says at the end of the Mass?

In Latin, the last words of the Mass are, "Ite, Missa est." The word "Mass" takes its origin in the Latin, MISSA, a verb indicating that we are sent. Mass has no neat ending, rather it ends with a reminder that the Mass sends us on MISSION: to let our love of God flow forth to all the world. Pope Benedict himself has added some new variations on the standard dismissal with each new text expressing something of the MISSION given to us, the Baptized, by our participation in Eucharist. E.g. "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord."

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our are dedicated to raising awareness about the atrocities that occur in sweatshops and provide alternatives to purchasing apparel from companies that are not sweatshop-free, as well as collaborating with campus partners to make UD sweatshop-free.

Living Simply and Sustainably

Register for this free, one credit hour mini-course (UDI 324 MI). Students will explore the reasons to live a simple and sustainable lifestyle and the benefits of doing so for themselves, for the Earth, and for other people. The discussions will also explore how to live more simply and sustainably. The course will be on Weds. 3-4:25pm, from January 25 to April 25. Sign up when you register for classes!

Domestic Winter BreakOuts

January 8-15

There is still room to attend a service trip to Solsberry Hill in Bloomington, IN. Sign up online at <http://www2.udayton.edu/ministry/csc/BreakOuts.php>. Questions? Contact Mary Niebler at mniebler1@notes.udayton.edu.

Thank you!!!

Because of the generosity of many within the UD community, including individuals as well as departments, we were able to provide Thanksgiving dinner to 550 families in the Dayton area. The incredible community of love and support has brought Christ into the world for many people. We are grateful to Krogers and Meijers in their partnership with the Center for Social Concern in making all of this happen. Our Dayton community is still in great need, and as we enter into the holy season of Advent and Christmas, we are reminded of the child born in Bethlehem calling each of us to continue to bring His message of hope and love to our world.

Completing the Thanksgiving Baskets

Jiffy pie crust; $0.79. Gas to get to eight Krogers; $35. 202 pie crust boxes bought within five hours — PRICELESS!

December 8 Feast of the Immaculate Conception

Masses for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception will be at 9am, 12:05pm, 4pm and 9pm in the Chapel. Celebrate UD's patronal feast at one of these four festive Masses. This is a holy day of obligation. If you can serve as a liturgical minister for any of the Masses, contact udliturgy@gmail.com

Roman Missal Online Course

Want to learn more about the Roman Missal? The Virtual Learning Community for Faith Formation is offering an online reduced rate course for staff, faculty or students. The five week online course from January 8 to February 11, 2012 will provide an in-depth study of the revised Order of Mass. Tuition remission benefits apply. Contact Kathy Sales at ksales1@notes.udayton.edu or call 229-2019.

The Gift Tree

Pax Christi has set up a gift tree on the back bulletin board of the Immaculate Conception Chapel with needs for children ages 1-14. If you wish to participate, please take an ornament to purchase small toys or clothing ($25 maximum) and return your gift(s) unwrapped, with the ornament attached, to the back of the Chapel no later than December 11. This year, donations will go to Catholics who are struggling in Jordan. Thank you for your solidarity with Catholics around the world. Questions? Contact Andrew Kuttler at apkuttler@gmail.com

2011 UD Miryam Award

Nominations are now being accepted. This award recognizes the efforts of people on our campus to change the atmosphere and the potential for women's achievements at the University of Dayton. Nominations may include individuals or groups of UD faculty, staff, or students. Nomination forms can be found on CSC website at www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc and are due on Friday, Jan.27. Questions? Contact Kelly Bohrer at 229-2516.

Martin Luther King Day Events

January 16, Monday

Join UD students, faculty, and staff for MLK day events. We will begin the day at 10am in the Office of Multicultural Affairs in Gosiger Hall. Breakfast will be provided. We will leave campus at 11am to join with the city of Dayton for a march from Stewart Street to Downtown. At noon, we will participate in a rally at the convention center downtown. This will be followed with a free lunch and conversation about Martin Luther King and his vision for America. Please register by Friday, December 16 at www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc/MLK_day
