MARIAN BOOK NOTES

A Spanish edition of the famous MARIOLOGIA by Fr. Benedict Henry Merkelbach, O.P., is now available. The new edition has been revised by Fr. Arenillas, O.P. The original Latin edition published in 1939 has long been out of print, though frequently in demand. . . . Fr. Caspar Friethoff, O.P., is the author of a new Mariology recently published in Holland, VOLLEDIGE MARIALEER. The English edition, entitled COMPLETE MARIOLOGY, will be published in the Spring of 1956 by Blackfriars. . . . BERNADETTE AND THE LADY by Hertha Pauli will be the Catholic juvenile Vision Books of Farrar, Straus for January, 1956. . . . The famous novelist Frances Parkinson Keyes, who has written two previous Marian works (THE GRACE OF GUADALUPE and BERNADETTE OF LOURDES), has now finished SAINT ANNE, GRANDMOTHER OF OUR SAVIOR, which Messner will publish December 5. . . . A rarity in the book field, a Protestant novel on Our Lady, DAUGHTER OF NAZARETH, by Florence Marvyne Bauer, was released last month (Broadman). . . . Henri Gheon's MARY, MOTHER OF GOD, has been published in a new edition by Regnery. . . . Regnery also announced two Marian books in their new Angelus series: THEOLOGY OF THE APOSTOLATE by Bishop Suenens, up to now published by Newman, and ST. BERNADETTE by Henri Petitot. Regnery claims that these are not reprints, but both have been previously published.

MARIANISM IN C.P.I. SELECTIVE INDEXING

Readers of the MARIANIST magazine, especially students and librarians, will be happy to know that since January 1955 the magazine has been included in the selective indexing program of the Catholic Periodical Index.

As an additional feature, the MARIANIST will include an annual index in the December issue, compiled by Bro. William Kiefer, S.M. Both of these indexing services will help to make the MARIANIST even more useful to those who wish to consult back issues or use the magazine as a reference tool.
