MARIAN AWARDS

Father Joseph Skelly, C.M., director of the Central Association of the Miraculous Medal, Philadelphia, Pa., was awarded the sixth annual Marianist Award by the University of Dayton for outstanding service to the Mother of God in America. The award was made in Dayton on the feast of the Immaculate Conception.

Father Denis Mary McAuliffe, O.P., professor at Sacred Heart Dominican College in Houston, Texas, has been presented with the Montfort Fathers’ first Pius XII Marian Award for outstanding work in promoting universal consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The ceremony took place at the Consecration Center in Bay Shore, N. Y., on December 8.

FREE FATIMA BOOKLET

Msgr. Joseph Cacella, the American apostle of Fatima who was born and reared only a few miles from the site of the apparitions in Portugal, is the author of an 80-page booklet, “How Fatima Came to America,” which discloses the fact that the world first came to know about Fatima and the apparitions, not from Portugal, but from America.

Msgr. Cacella, who is director of the Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima, 443 East 135th St., New York 54, N. Y., will send a copy of his booklet free to anyone who requests it.
MARIOLOGICAL CONGRESS PLANNED FOR 1958

"Mary and the Church" will be the theme of the third international Mariological Congress when it meets at Lourdes, France, in 1958 to celebrate the centenary of the apparitions of the Blessed Virgin to Bernadette.

Rev. Charles Bac, O.F.M., president of the International Marian Academy with headquarters in Rome, has announced that the congress is to be held September 10-17, 1958. Scholars representing 78 Marian associations will take part.

A feature of the Lourdes congress will be a display of modern Marian art and recent Marian literature.
