Ash Wednesday is a day of fast and abstinence from meat and also a day of fast, that is, limited to a single full meal. All Fridays of Lent are also days of abstinence from meat. For information on fasting and abstinence from meat, and other Lenten prayer resources, please go to usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/liturgical-resources/lent/

Quote of the Week

"Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love."

1 John 4:7-8

CATHOLIC LENT RETREAT

"Lent comes providentially to reawaken us, to shake us from our lethargy." -- Pope Francis

Lent always tends to sneak up on me and I remember that I have to give something up. I sometimes dread it coming to shake me out of my comfortable place. However, there is no Easter Sunday without a Good Friday. We need this period of reawakening in order to experience the fullness of the Resurrection; the life that we are meant to live! Sometimes it's painful to wake up from the lethargy that Pope Francis talks about because it is so comfortable, but it's always worth it. The joy that comes afterwards is indescribable. Pope St. John Paul II said, "We are the Easter people, and hallelujah is our song!" The season of Lent is a time of fasting and renewal; a time to shed the old scales in your spiritual life and be opened to the new skin beneath them in a time of feasting!

From March 10-12, you will have the opportunity to start your Lent off on the right foot by attending the Catholic Lent Retreat. Participate in opportunities for Reconciliation, Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, and daily prayer. Listen to talks and share in small groups. Fast from doubt, worry, and sin this Lent. Feast on love, trust, and hope.

Sign up today at tinyurl.com/udretreats! The cost is $40.

Sunday Readings

Reading I: Lv 19:1-2, 17-18
Responsorial Psalm: Ps 103:1-2, 3-4, 8, 10, 12-13
Reading II: 1 Cor 3:16-23
Gospel: Mt 5:38-48

*"You shall not bear hatred for your brother or sister in your heart.
Though you may have to reprove your fellow citizen, do not incur sin because of him.
Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against any of your people.
You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
I am the LORD."*

Leviticus 19: 17-18

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our Service Program of the Week: Multicultural Programming Council breaks down social walls and creates events to raise awareness about our different cultures and ethnicities.

Busy Person's Retreat

Want to spend more time in prayer this Lent but don't have a lot of time? Consider doing the busy person's "retreat" where you will meet once a week for 30 minutes with a spiritual companion beginning the week of Mar. 7 until the week of Apr. 7. A resource with reflections will help guide your meeting. A kick-off Mardi Gras lunch is on Mon. Feb. 27, 12:30-1:30pm. Open to UD students, staff and faculty. Sign up at tinyurl.com/UDbusypersons. Space is limited! Questions? Contact Kathy Sales (ksales1@udayton.edu) or Jessica Peek (peekj1@udayton.edu).

Road Less Traveled Retreat, February 24-25

Attention all first year students, come take the Road Less Traveled! This is a unique retreat experience designed for first year students by other first year students. Enjoy a weekend of spiritual reflection centered in the ideas of Call, Discipleship, and Journey. Contact Bro. Tom Pieper at tpieper1@udayton.edu or Jennifer Morin-Williamson at morinwilliamsonj1@udayton.edu. Register on-line at <http://tinyurl.com/UDRetreats>.

Perspectives on Faith and Life Series: Explore Truth,

Discover Beauty—Dinner and Discussion

Thursday, Feb. 23, 6:30-8:30 pm, VWK Main

The speaker is Bro. Dan Klco. The title is "Can Religion and Science be Friends?" The presentation will discuss some of the causes for the tension between science and religion that have developed historically and explore possibilities and perspectives to relieve these tensions and help bring about a more positive relationship between religion and science. The case of Galileo in the 1600s and the Theory of Evolution today will be used as examples. Due to the KU construction, our free dinner will be in VWK. RSVP at <https://orgsync.com/91978/events/1788252>. The event is worth a Housing PATH point!

Immigration Plunge

March 11, 9am-4pm, ArtStreet Studio C

Immigration and Refugee Resettlement has been a controversial topic recently, but how do these issues affect our local community? This day-long experience will take you through simulations, presentations, and out into the city of Dayton to dive deeper into issues surrounding immigration. If you have questions, please contact Meaghan Crowley in the Center for Social Concern at crowleym1@udayton.edu. Sign up on-line.

For more details and applications on all of the above, go to www.udayton.edu/ministry or call Campus Ministry at 937-229-3339 or the Center for Social Concern at 937-229-2524.
