NEW MARIAN BOOKS

Father Emil Neubert, S.M., is completing his latest Marian work, LA MISSION APOSTOLIQUE DE MARIE ET LA NOTRE PLAYED BY EAR, the autobiography of Father Daniel A. Lord, S.J., (Loyola U. Press), is selling well and is worth your reading time. . . . Orbis Catholicus in Rome has published BIBLIOGRAPHIA DE VITA, OPERIBUS ET DOCTRINA IOHANNIS DUNS SCOTI, edited by Adulfus Schaefer, O.F.M. . . . YOUR WAY (Bruce), meditations on the rosary for women, is a translation of the French work TA ROUTE. . . . Anne Tansey’s a.thology of poems on the mysteries of the rosary, THE POET’S ROSARY (Grail), contains 170 poems, including seven of the collector’s own works. . . . The well-known French theologian, Rene Laurentin, has a new work on Lourdes, SENS DE LOURDES, which treats the place of Lourdes in the life of the Church (Lethielleux). . . . Westminster announces an American edition of the Protestant work THE VIRGIN MARY by Giovanni Miegge for April 23. The foreword has been written by John A. Mackay. The original Italian edition was published in 1950. . . . Another Marian “Vision Book”, ST. DOMINIC AND THE ROSARY, by Catherine Beebe, will be published in July by Farrar, Straus. . . . THE MYSTERY OF THE WOMAN, edited by Edward O’Connor, C.S.C., will be ready April 15 (U. of Notre Dame Press). . . . Cambridge University Press has announced J. C. Dickinson’s SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF WALSINGHAM for May. . . . Fr. Juniper B. Carol’s important FUNDAMENTALS OF MARIOLOGY is being published by Benziger. . . . MARY IN FAITH, HISTORY, AND DEVOTION by Anselm E. Burke, O. Carm., is a spring publication of Scapular Press . . . Mary Fabyan Windeatt’s latest color book is on the capular: THE BROWN SCAPULAR COLOR BOOK (Grail).
MARIAN STUDIES—1956

Volume 7 of MARIAN STUDIES, papers read at the Mariological Convention in New York on Mary's Perpetual Virginity, is now available from the editor, Rev. Juniper B. Carol, 600 Sound View Avenue, Bronx 72, N. Y. $2.50. 145p.

MARIANIST PILGRIMAGE TO CANADA

A Marianist Pilgrimage to Canada, visiting the shrines of St. Joseph, Our Lady of the Cape, and Ste. Anne de Beaupre, and personally led by Rev. Gabriel J. Rus, S.M., of the Marianist Affiliation Service, has been announced for July 29-August 4, 1956. Further information may be obtained from the Marianist Promotion Service, University of Dayton, Dayton 9, Ohio.

1956 MARIAN INSTITUTE

The fourth annual Marian Institute sponsored by the Marian Library will be held at the University of Dayton on Friday and Saturday, June 15-16, 1956. Two of the featured speakers will be Fr. Eamon R. Carol, O.Carm., of Whitefriars Hall, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Mary Reed Newland, Monson, Mass., author of We and Our Children. Mrs. Newland also spoke at the 1955 Institute. Additional details will be published in the May Newsletter.

MOTHER'S DAY BOOKLET

Featuring the theme, "Mary, Queen of the Rosary," the tenth Mother's Day booklet published by the St. Philip Neri Mission Society of St. Francis Seminary, Milwaukee, includes prose and poetry by Caryll Houselander, Father Peyton, Joyce Kilmer, and Alice Meynell. The booklet which last year sold 90,000 copies, is priced at 25c, with discounts on orders over 50. Write to: Mother's Day Booklet, St. Francis Major Seminary, 3257 South Lake Drive, Milwaukee 7, Wisconsin.

Alpyne, pseud., YOUR WAY. Milwaukee, Bruce, 1955. 78p.

Aramburu, Manuel Vicente, HISTORIA CHRONOLOGICA DE LA SANTA ... CAPILLA DE NUESTRA SEÑORA DEL PILAR ... Zaragoza, Imp. del Rey Nuestro Senor, 1766. 415p.

Cardahi, Choucri, LA SAINTE VIERGE DANS LA LITTERATURE FRANCAISE. Beyrouth, St. Joseph University, 1955. 60p.

Serra y Postius, Pedro, NUESTRA SEñORA DE MONSERRATE ... Barcelona, Pablo Campins, 1747. 500p.

CANADIAN MARIAN BULLETIN

The Canadian Society of Marian Studies now issues a monthly four page bulletin, Eré Mariále. The February number contains texts giving directives for the study of Mariology by Pope Pius XII, Cardinal Pizzardo, and Cardinal McGuigan. Address: Eré Mariále, 1, rue Stewart, Ottawa, Canada.

ROSARY FILMS

Father Patrick Peyton, C.S.C., recently announced that he will produce a series of religious films depicting the 15 mysteries of the Rosary. Father Peyton said that the films will be made in Spain for showing on television and in commercial theatres. Both Spanish and English language films will be made.

SONG OF THE CENTURIES

Song of the Centuries is the title of a record album on the Rosary which includes two 12" double-faced long-playing records with 25 minutes playing time per side. Supervised, edited, and produced by Rev. Henry J. Yannone, the records feature the recitation of the 15 mysteries of the rosary, interwoven with a dramatic commentary and musical renditions by the Paulist Choir of New York City and the choir of Saint Mary's Seminary, Baltimore. Price $9.95. Available from: The Song of the Centuries, 2027 Nicholas Avenue, S.E., Washington 20, D. C.