MARY IN THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA

The April 1956 issue of The Catholic Library World calls the attention of librarians to the fact that after all these years, the treatment of Our Lady in the Encyclopaedia Britannica is as inadequate as ever. In a box under the heading 'Wouldn't You Think?' the CLW says: "Wouldn't you think that the editors of the Encyclopaedia Britannica would revise the article on the Blessed Virgin Mary? Like other encyclopedias, Britannica boasts a policy of continuous revision. Failure to rewrite this pseudo-scientific, scurrilous piece can be nothing less than deliberate."

It might be worth pointing out this fact to the next Britannica agent who calls on you.

NOTES ON MARIAN PUBLICATIONS

The Society of St. Paul in Bombay has just issued an Indian edition of Father William Most's MARY IN OUR LIFE. Father Most's work is also making its way elsewhere. Besides selling well in the American (second) edition published by Kenedy, it has been published in Ireland by Mercier, and a Malayalam translation is in preparation. . . . THE DARK VIRGIN: the book of Our Lady of Guadalupe, a documentary anthology edited by Donald Demarest and Coley Taylor has finally been published after a delay of more than a year. It is well worth the $5.00 price tag (Coley Taylor). . . . Sister Marie de Sales, S.C., has made an original translation of St. Jerome's De Perpetua Virginitate Beatae Mariae Adversus Helvidium as part of her master's thesis for the University of Pittsburgh. Sister has sent us a copy. . . . A very important work of great significance to English-speaking students of Mariology has been announced. Donald Attwater has compiled a MARY DICTIONARY, along the lines of his CATHOLIC DICTIONARY, which will be published by Kenedy in the fall. . . . Catechetical Guild has a new children's color booklet telling the story of OUR LADY OF FATIMA. . . . Ruth Cranston, author of THE MIRACLE OF LOURDES (McGraw-Hill), died in New York early in April.

PIUS XII ON CONSECRATION TO MARY

A valuable 62-page booklet, Pius XII on Consecration to Mary, edited by Fr. Hubert M. Pocock, S.M.M., and published by the Consecration Center, Bay Shore, N. Y., contains 139 papal texts on the importance of consecration to the Immaculate Heart. The texts are listed under seven headings, with discussion questions following each section. Price 25c.

ACTION NOW DISCONTINUED

Action Now, the national sodality magazine for adults, will cease publication with the June 1956 number. It has been published since 1947 and is the only magazine to have covered the adult sodalist field. It has been especially valuable to librarians because the Catholic Periodical Index has indexed its contents almost from the beginning. Rev. Richard L. Rooney, S.J., editor, blames the discontinuation on excessively high printing costs.

MARIAN HYMNS

A 10" 33 1/3 rpm microgroove unbreakable record, SING TO MARY, presents nine selected hymns in honor of the Blessed Virgin by the Catholic University of America Chorus, under the direction of John Paul. Hymns include: Lourdes Hymn; Ave Maria; Daily, Daily Sing to Mary; Beata Viscera; O Sanctissima Hail, Holy Queen Enthroned Above; O Mary Immaculate; Who Is She Ascends So High; and Like the Dawning. Catholic Distributors, Inc., 901 Monroe Street, N.E., Washington 17, D. C.

MARIAN REPRINT No. 45

Mary in the Eastern Church, by Stephen C. Gulovich, a study of Marian devotion in both the Catholic and Orthodox Eastern Churches, is number 45 in the Marian Reprint series. 10c a copy, $1.00 for a year's subscription of ten issues.
