July ~~23~~, 1968

FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

Congressman Charles W. Whalen, Jr. today announced that he has begun accepting applications for appointments to West Point, Annapolis and the Air Force Academy.

The appointments will be for classes entering in June, 1969.

Interested young men should write a letter to Congressman Whalen at his Washington office (1428 Longworth Building, Washington, D.C. 20515).

Principal and alternate appointments will be made following the results of a physical examination, a civil service test and interviews by the appropriate Third Congressional District Academy Screening Committee.

The cut-off date for applications will be announced later and probably will be mid-November of this year.

Appointment to a military academy offers the opportunity for a baccalaureate degree and a regular commission as a military officer.
