MARIANIST MAGAZINE FEATURES

The Marian Library's all-Marian magazine, The Marianist, which has had a fifty percent increase in circulation in the last two years, will feature articles by many prominent Catholics in its coming issues.

The November number includes contributions by author Lucile Hasley, Washington music critic Paul Hume, David Goldstein, Boston apologist, and Mary Synon, a consultant for the Commission on American Citizenship at Catholic University. As the first article in a special series for youth, Father Fred F. Mathues, S.M., treats the topic "Mary and Steady Dating."

The December issue will contain articles by Rev. Bernard LeFrois, S.V.D., president of the Mariological Society of America; Helen Walker Homan, prominent Catholic author; and Rev. Richard O'Shaughnessy, S.M., Maryhurist Normal School, Kirkwood, Mo. The final of ten articles in Diana S. Cary's "Madonnas of the Americas" series will also appear in December. Mrs. Cary's book, based on the articles written for the Marianist, will be published during the coming year. Father LeFrois, incidentally, is now teaching theology at Immaculate Conception Seminary, Vigan, Ilocos Sur, Philippines.

Two special Marianist issues will appear in early 1957. The Sodality will be the subject of the January number, and Mary and the Family is the topic discussed by six experts in the April issue.

Subscription price of the Marianist is two dollars a year.

The MARIAN LIBRARY NEWSLETTER is published monthly except July, August, and September, by the Marian Library, University of Dayton, Dayton 9, Ohio. The NEWSLETTER will be sent free of charge to anyone requesting it.
STATUES WANTED

The Pilgrimage Bureau, shrine of Our Lady of the Cape, Cap de la Madeleine, Canada, has begun a collection of statues of the many Madonnas venerated throughout the world, to be permanently housed in the new Basilica being built at the Cape.

Statues of ten inches high, or less, depicting the Madonnas of some authentic shrine of Our Lady, are especially desired. The director of the shrine realizes that those sending statues are making a sacrifice, but the opportunity of placing them in a permanent exhibition open to the public more than compensates for the loss.

Those who send statues are asked to pack them carefully, and include all known information about the origin of the Madonna depicted.

THE STORY OF KNOCK

Alice Curtayne, the Irish writer who is well-known for her biographical studies, has prepared a pamphlet for the Scapular Press on the apparition of Our Lady at Knock. Entitled The Story of Knock, it sells for 25¢, and contains a beautiful reproduction of Richard King's original painting of the vision which was seen by fifteen people on August 21, 1879.

MARIAN UNION CATALOG

The San Antonio unit of the Catholic Library Association has published a Union Catalog of Marian Books in San Antonio, the fruit of a bibliographical project by the unit during the Marian Year. Edited by Brother Paul Novosal, S.M., librarian at St. Mary's University, San Antonio, the booklet contains the Marian holdings of sixteen libraries in the area. Copies may be purchased for 50¢ from the Marian Catalog, St. Mary's University, San Antonio 1, Texas.

Other units of the Catholic Library Association interested in a similar project might wish to consult the San Antonio group. A series of union catalogs published in booklet form in various sections of the country would be of considerable assistance to students and teachers.
