Robert A. Nunlist to Speak at the Third Annual Credit Conference

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/191

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.
Robert A. Nunlist, assistant treasurer and credit manager of the Armco Steel Corporation, will discuss collection policies and procedures at the third annual credit conference at the University of Dayton next Wednesday (Jan. 28).

Nunlist, with Armco for the past 23 years, is past president, and director and a member of the advisory board of the Cincinnati Association of Credit Men. He holds degrees from the University of Cincinnati and Xavier University and has awards from the Graduate School of Credit and Financial Management and the National Institute of Credit.

The credit conference, co-sponsored by the Dayton Association of Credit Men and the Dayton Credit Women's Club, in addition to the University, will feature six other speakers.

They are Roy A. Foulke, vice president of Dun and Bradstreet; Clifford E. Brose, branch manager of the General Electric Credit Corporation in Dayton; Loren F. Minnick, director of organization development at the Standard Register Co., Dayton; Thomas E. Talbot, Dayton attorney; Dr. Thomas Hailstones, chairman of the business programs at Xavier University, and G. A. Sanders, supervisor of credits, the Proctor and Gamble Distributing Co., Cincinnati.

Topics will include a forecast of economic conditions, the credit man as a business advisor, credit investigation, credit analysis and lawsuits.

The entire program will be conducted in Wohlleben Hall on the U.D. campus.