MARIAN INSTITUTE OF CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

The first two courses in the Marian Institute recently organized by the Catholic University of America will be offered this summer by Fr. Eamon R. Carroll, O. Carm., director of the Institute, and president of the Mariological Society of America. The courses are:

GENERAL MARIOL OGY I (Principles and methodology; Christological foundations; Mary's functions: Divine Maternity, Spiritual Maternity, Mediation of Graces, Universal Queenship)

MARIAN DOCTRINES OF MODERN POPES (Analysis of major papal statements of the last century)

The Marian Institute has been established to provide a systematic training in theology about the Blessed Virgin. The hundred years from the definition of the Immaculate Conception (1854) to the Marian Year (1954) were a century of extraordinary progress in the study of Our Lady, her place and her privileges. The Marian Institute now offers to a wider audience the results of the best modern scholarship about the Mother of God.

Summer Session: July 1 to August 9. For a leaflet on the Institute, write: Director of the Summer Session, Catholic University of America, Washington 17, D. C.
