UD in the News Dec. 16-31

As 2017 drew to a close, 'The Washington Post' highlighted the University's involvement in the American Talent Initiative and the 'National Catholic Reporter' Global Sisters Report profiled 'cable television pioneer' Sr. Angela Ann Zukowski, director of the Institute for Pastoral Initiatives.

Online outlet Education Dive tapped the expertise of Kuntz Family Endowed Chair in Educational Administration Theodore Kowalski and Chief Information Officer Tom Skill.

OhioENGINEER highlighted news of engineering students teaming with Hobart on a patent for an innovation that assists in trapping heat in industrial dishwashers.

And Jennifer Dalton in the School of Education and Health Sciences was a guest of WXXU-FM's "Cincinnati Edition" to discuss a partnership with Grandview Medical Center to offer a culinary medicine program that teaches doctors healthy diet and cooking skills they can pass on to their patients.
