8-25-1959

Announcing the Start Date of a Two-part Short Course on "Contracting with the Government"

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

"Announcing the Start Date of a Two-part Short Course on "Contracting with the Government"" (1959). News Releases. 218.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/218

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlagen1@udayton.edu.
First of a two-part short course on "Contracting with the Government" will begin at the University of Dayton Sept. 15. Sponsored by UD's community service center, the course will include eight Tuesday evening sessions and will be conducted by Lt. Charles Kelly of the office of the Staff Judge Advocate at Air Materiel Command.

Basic principles of government contract law, use of government funds, basic procurement policies, government aid to contractors and procurement by formal advertising will be covered during the course. It is designed for sales managers, sales representatives, accountants, bookkeepers and others who contact with government agencies requires a familiarity with basic government contract procedures.