Research exercise: A couple 20's for the night: an Analysis of "Renting Lacy"

Shannon E. Breslin
University of Dayton, stander@udayton.edu

Follow this and additional works at: http://ecommons.udayton.edu/stander_posters

Recommended Citation
http://ecommons.udayton.edu/stander_posters/222

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Stander Symposium at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Stander Symposium Posters by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.
Domestic minor sex trafficking is the commercial sexual exploitation of American children under the age of 18 within U.S. borders.

“As the sun sets across the United States, thousands of children are rising to meet the night.” - Page 95

“The first 20 or so times were the hardest. Then you sort of get used to it and don’t think as much about it.”
- Former child sex trafficking victim from Missouri

“None of these women or girls wants to be in this situation of being prostituted or being drug-addicted. You know, their circumstances have gotten them to this point, and those circumstances aren’t pretty.”
- Former child sex trafficking victim from Missouri

100,000 American Children are being used as commodities for sex services in cities across the nation.

“The only way not to find this problem in any community is to not look for it.”
– Page vii

The stories are not pretty, and they are not easy to read. However they are the truth.

“He loved her.” - Page 126

“I just love that Taylor Swift song about Romeo and Juliet.”
- Sugar, 11 year old “prostitute”

“I am going to die like Belle. It might not be AIDS, but it’ll be something like that.”
- Cherry, an “old slut”

Page 52