The University of Dayton Review, in accordance with the purposes of the University, presents articles by scholars in all academic disciplines. The editors are particularly interested in work of humanistic and Christian concern. They invite articles relating to special disciplines in the humanities and those reflecting interdisciplinary scholarship.

The Review is published three times a year by the University of Dayton, 300 College Park Avenue, Dayton, Ohio 45409. It is sent without charge to libraries and interested persons who request copies. Manuscripts and correspondence should be addressed to the chairman of the Editorial Board; requests for subscriptions or copies should be sent to the Managing Editor; both in care of the Department of English. Contributions should not normally exceed 6000 words in length and should follow the form prescribed in the MLA Style Sheet, with footnotes and indented quotations double-spaced.
