Last campus appearance of the Dixie Dynamos, UD student dixie-land band, will take place this week-end when the group takes part in the fifth annual Variety Show of the UD Band. The show is set for the field-house at 8:15 p.m. on Friday, April 29, the Sunday, May 1.

The Dynamos, formed three years ago for the same Variety Show, recently won the special showmanship award at the Notre Dame Collegiate Jazz Festival. They've played at several night spots around Dayton in both professional and amateur capacities and have headlined any number of UD shows. They were one of the students acts incorporated into the recent Bob Hope show on the campus. Among soloists who've sat in with the group was Gene Krupa, the famed drummer who played with them at a student assembly last year.

It's graduation and Army duty which is breaking up the popular group.

Also scheduled for the Variety Show is a 22-piece show band, the Mark V Sextet, The Escorts, Three C's, Flyerettes, and a number of comedy acts.

UD band director Maurice R. Reichard produces and directs the annual showcase for UD student talent. Tickets are 75 cents.
