REPORT, 1990-91: WESTERN REGION

Several factors interfered with the sponsorship of an annual event in the past year: the illness of the chairman, Father Alfred Boeddeker, O.F.M.; a serious financial loss; and a change of assignment for the secretary, Brother John Samaha, S.M.

Other difficulties are also being experienced in planning regional meetings: financing an event; finding members to serve on a steering committee; and finding assistance for the work of planning and executing a program.

In the quincentenary year of the New World's evangelization, 1992, MSA/West hopes to promote a special event.

BRO. JOHN M. SAMAHA, S.M.
Executive Secretary, MSA/West
